Campus Climate and Social Justice Matters

A Presentation and Conversation with

Jeanne Scheper

Assistant Professor, Gender & Sexuality Studies Department

Tuesday, December 2, 2014
Noon-1:00 p.m.
Cross-Cultural Center
(Dr. White Room)

Jeanne Scheper is Assistant Professor of Gender and Sexuality Studies and a recipient of the Hellman Fellowship (2013-2014). Her research and teaching engages with the interdisciplinary fields of performance studies and visual culture; cultural studies; theories of race, gender, & sexuality and trans-Atlantic modernism. She has published scholarly essays in African American Review; Feminist Studies; Camera Obscura; and Duke Journal of Gender Law and Policy. Her current book project is "Moving Performances: Divas, Iconicity, and Remembering the Modern Stage." Before joining the faculty at UCI, she was Research Director for the Palm Center, a public policy think tank on sexual minorities in the military.

The event is part of the Office of Equal Opportunity and Diversity's Campus Conversations Series which aims to provide the campus community with opportunities to engage in dialogues about contemporary topics related to equal opportunity and diversity.

Event is free and open to the community. For more information and to RSVP, please call 949-824-5594 or email: oeod@uci.edu. To learn more about OEOD, please go to: www.oeod.uci.edu.

Co-Sponsors: Cross-Cultural Center, LGBT Resource Center, UCI ADVANCE Program and Department of Gender and Sexuality Studies.
