Presents

The New Face of Law Enforcement

A Presentation and Conversation with

Sandra Hutchens

Orange County Sheriff-Coroner

Wednesday, April 21, 2010
Noon-1:00 p.m.
Cross-Cultural Center

Sandra Hutchens is the 12th Orange County Sheriff and the first female Sheriff to be selected by the Board of Supervisors to serve the Orange County community. As Sheriff of Orange County, Sandra Hutchens leads the more than 3,800 sworn and professional men and women who serve in a number of diverse areas. The Sheriff's Department provides direct patrol services to more than 700,000 of the County's 3.1 Million residents, including twelve municipal cities via contract, as well as the County's harbors, John Wayne Airport, and the Orange County Transportation Agency. Sheriff Hutchens also oversees the operations of the 8th largest jail system in the nation.

The event is part of the Office of Equal Opportunity and Diversity's Campus Conversations Series which aims to provide the campus community with opportunities to engage in dialogues about contemporary topics related to equal opportunity and diversity.

Event is free and open to the community. If you have questions or need further information, please call 949-824-5594 or oeod@uci.edu. To learn more about OEOD, please go to: www.oeod.uci.edu.
